

Dear Head of the Judiciary Ayatollah Sadegh Larijan,

I call on you to release Atena Daemi, Arash Sadeghi, and Golrokh Ebrahimi Iraee immediately and unconditionally, as they are prisoners of conscience, imprisoned solely for the peaceful exercise of their rights to freedom of expression, association, and peaceful assembly including through their human rights work.

Please ensure that Golrokh Ebrahimi Iraee and Atena Daemi have access to a qualified health professional who can provide health care in compliance with medical ethics, including the principles of confidentiality, autonomy and informed consent.

Yours sincerely,

Atena Daemi and Golrokh Ebrahimi Irae, are friends. They are currently in prison because of their work to protect and promote human rights in Iran.

In January they were violently transferred to Shahr-e Rey prison. During the transfer, the women allege guards insulted and abused them.

In protest of their transfer, they went on hunger strike. They have stopped drinking water since February 11.

Tell the Iranian authorities to ensure that Golrokh and Atena have access to medical care and they must immediately be released.
