

Your Excellency, President Abdel Fattah al-Sisi

I am extremely concerned that Azza Soliman and other human rights defenders in Egypt are being harassed, detained, their travel restricted as well as their assets frozen for protecting human rights.

I call on you to immediately and unconditionally drop charges against Azza and Egyptian human right defenders, and for travel bans and asset freezes issued against them to be revoked.

Yours sincerely,

Azza Soliman bravely speaks out to victims of torture, arbitrary detention, domestic abuse, and rape.

Azza and other Egyptian human rights defenders have been labelled as spies and threats to national security because of their courageous and selfless work. They have been targeted with smear campaigns and government surveillance; security forces and pro-government media constantly harass them. Many of them face sentences of up to life in prison on trumped up charges.

Call on the President to drop all charges and free Azza and her fellow Egyptian human rights defenders.
